

Manager of Distribution and Marketing

Salary: TBD according to experience and knowledge

7th SCREEN is an indigenous distribution company in Canada, based in Quebec, which aims to promote indigenous talent. Our priority is to promote indigenous productions and filmmakers to Canadian and international audiences through the creation of enriching stories, arts and cultural content.

As part of our development, we are looking for a Distribution and Marketing Manager.

Responsibilities:

- Negotiate and acquire the distribution rights of targeted films
- Develop and execute marketing strategies for each film acquired
- Develop and maintain relationships with potential buyers, media and other important industry partners
- Set up distribution networks and conduct market studies
- Manage promotional campaign for films

Skills required:

Bilingualism

Knowledge of Indigenous cultures, nations, traditions and issues

Good writing skills

Knowledge of the film industry

Excellent interpersonal and communication skills

Team spirit, dynamic, resourceful and positive

Organized with great attention to detail

Ability to manage several tasks or projects at the same time

Experience & education requirements:

2 to 5 years of experience in marketing, communications or cinema

College Diploma or bachelor's degree

Knowledge of Microsoft Office software

Pros:

Flexible schedule

Coverage of travel expenses

Part of a caring and fun team

Working from home is possible

Free parking

Priority will be given to candidates who are Indigenous.

Interested candidates can send their application to sophie@nishmedia.tv.

Position to be filled as soon as possible!

For more information about 7th Screen, please visit <http://seventhscreen.ca>.